

Revision Checklist for Year 9 Home Economics

What I need to know	I know this now
Meaning of consumer, goods and services
How to make a complaint about a faulty product
Names of consumer organisations and how they can help the consumer– Consumer Council, Trading Standards Service, Environmental Health Department, Citizen’s Advice Bureau, Which?
Things you think about before buying a new product
What is food poisoning? Symptoms (signs) of food poisoning
Groups who are most at risk of food poisoning
4 things bacteria need to grow – time, food, warmth and moisture
4 Cs – cleaning, cooking, chilling, cross contamination
Advantages and disadvantages of shopping online
How to tell if a website is secure
Legislation to help protect consumer rights 1. Sale and Supply of Goods Act 1994 – of satisfactory quality, fit for purpose and as described 2. Consumer Protection (Distance Selling) regulations 2000
Advantages and disadvantages of paying by - Debit card, Cash & Credit card
Getting older – nutritional needs of older people
Importance of Calcium
What is osteoporosis and Coronary Heart Disease?
Forms of advertising to children	