Data protection and privacy information – Please read!

The RCSLT NI takes the proper use and protection of your child’s personal information seriously, and our aim is to be completely transparent about how and why we will use it.

A RCSLT photographer will be present at the event, documenting the event and taking videos and photographs of the submissions and those in attendance. This media will be used for promotion in raising awareness on DLD on the RCSLT website, RCSLT social media and printed/online publications. Alongside the videos and images, RCSLT NI will have the children or young persons name and age on written, video and photographed submissions.

MLAs, professionals from statutory bodies and families will be invited to attend the event to support us in raising awareness of DLD. MLAs and other professional bodies/organisations may wish to use photographs/ videos taken at the event to support their political/organisational activity.

If you have any objections to images/videos been taken of any submissions being used please contact us and we'll use reasonable endeavours to not publish these images.

Your information will only be retained and used for as long as necessary, and for the purposes we have specified.

I understand I may end my agreement at any time by writing to the RCSLT NI via email to: ruth.sedgewick@rcslt.org
