

DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S AWARD

Are you up to the challenge of SILVER?

Ballyclare Secondary School

Silver Application Deadline: October 24th

to Mr Crothers or Miss Oliver

Should I apply?

Have you completed your Bronze Award or you are ready for a new challenge?

If you are a team player, enthusiastic about the outdoors and keen to enhance your skills then The Silver Award is certainly for you.

Throughout this programme you will not only gain new friends and experiences but you will have the opportunity to develop your ability to: navigate, map read, deliver first aid, follow bearings and work cohesively within a team.

The Silver Award tests tenacity, fitness, communication and commitment. You will be required to dedicate six months of your time in each of the following areas: physical, skill and volunteering with a non-profit organisation. Your expedition assesses your ability to complete a three day expedition.

If all of this sounds like heaven on earth to you then, why not apply?

If successful: the cost to complete Silver award is £75

Silver Expedition

How do I apply?
